2012 SNOWDOWN PARADE RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. NUMBER OF ENTRIES: Total parade entries limited to 60.
2. ENTRY COST: $50.00
3. ENTRY APPLICATION: The Snowdown Parade is a privately sponsored event. An application must be submitted for review before acceptance. If application is rejected, entry will not be allowed in Parade. Evaluation will be based on the following factors:

Historical compliance with Parade policies	Theme relevance
Appropriateness of entry (this is a family affair)	Danger risk to crowd
Non-controversial theme/message	No over commercialization
Intent - Fun attitude & message	Attitude - FUN
No excessive use of sound/noise	Cooperation
4. RESPONSIBLE PARTY: Each entry must have one person that agrees, in writing, to be responsible for the entry and the actions of the persons associated therewith. This person must travel the entire parade route with the entry to assure compliance with all rules, regulations and ordinances.
5. PARADE MARSHALS - The Snowdown Parade will deploy two parade marshals in each block to monitor entry compliance with Parade rules and regulations. Durango Police Dept. and the Colorado Mounted Rangers will be noting any non-compliance issues with entries. If an entry is out of compliance, the Snowdown Parade reserves the right to restrict that entry from future Parades. Additional Parade Marshals will be deployed at the end of route to facilitate the rapid disbursement of floats out of the area.
6. OVERSIZED VEHICLES - Entries with large trucks or other large vehicles will only be selected for entry if the nature of the entry (a lot of people, nature of display, etc) necessitates the extra size vehicle to accommodate the entry.
7. EXCESSIVE NOISE - The introduction of excessive noise to the Parade will now be restricted, such as semi-tractor air horns, sirens, etc. Music and loud speakers are acceptable unless excessive.
8. RESPONSIBILITY FOR DAMAGE - Each entry will be responsible for any damage to public or private property during Parade assembly, procession and/or disbursement.
9. CITY ORDINANCES - City ordinances prohibit throwing items from floats but do allow items to be handed out to the crowd across the barricades.
10. CONROVERSIAL ISSUES - Everyone is welcome in the Parade as long as you enter in the true spirit of Snowdown - FUN! Entries, however, espousing controversial pro or con positions are NOT welcome to do so during the Snowdown Parade.
11. PUBLIC SAFETY VEHICLES - Entry will be limited to one vehicle per district.
